

WHO WILL IT BE?

The Sedalia Democrats Express Preference on the National Ticket—Cleveland and Boies the Favorites.

—The BAZOO yesterday interviewed a number of prominent democrats of Sedalia as to who their choice was for successors to Harrison and Morton—for, of course, the gentlemen who will be nominated at Chicago this week will be the winners. The result of the inquiry in detail is as follows:

W. D. Steele—Cleveland and Boies.
John Cashman—Cleveland and Boies—tariff reform and free coinage of silver.
T. F. Mitchum—Cleveland and Boies or Gray.

Sam Rose—Cleveland and Boies.
Mont Carnes—Flower and Boies or vice versa.

Judge J. N. Dalby—Cleveland and Gray.

Judge Hoy—for the nominees who ever they are. Cleveland and Boies preferred.

J. H. Pilkington—Cleveland and Boies.

T. C. Holland—Cleveland and Boies.

Sol Kingsbaker—Cleveland and any good man for second place.

E. G. Cassidy—Flower, Cleveland, but believe Flower and Boies to be the most available ticket.

Geo. F. Longan—Boies and Flower would prove a winning ticket.

Kennedy—Boies and Flower.

Geo. B. Dean—Flower and Boies would make a strong ticket.

A. J. Warren said: My first choice is the great demander of "tariff reform," who in thunderous tones, aroused the world from its dreams and theorizing over the bloody shirt platforms, especially James G. Blaine and Wm. McKinley; who realized that the intelligence of the country demanded a modification of exorbitant prices and issues of modern importance. My second choice is Roswell P. Flower, the deservedly popular New York statesman. For Vice-president, a western man, as the south is always right—never wrong.

German Wolf—Cleveland and Boies are my choice.

J. G. Price—Cleveland and Boies.

Joseph Sewell—Give me Cleveland and Boies.

A BLOW ON THE NECK.

Frank Little, of Osborn Bros. Grocery Store, Violently Assaulted by Thomas Davis—An Ugly Affair.

Frank Little, who is employed by Osborn Bros., and Thomas Davis, who drives a sand wagon, had a disagreement yesterday morning over the passing of their teams near the corner of Ohio and Thirteenth streets, when Davis sprang from his wagon, ran up to the delivery wagon driven by Little, pulled him off and struck him a violent blow on the back of the neck, felling him to the ground like an ax bit with an axe. Davis then remounted his wagon and drove away.

Little was picked up and carried into a neighboring yard. He was wholly unconscious. His neck was soon badly swollen and there was also a bruise on his breast, caused by the fall.

Dr. S. K. Crawford was hastily summoned and applied the proper restoratives, but it was two hours or more before the injured man opened his eyes and recovered his senses.

Little was removed to his home on Fourth street. His injuries, while serious, are not now thought to be dangerous.

A warrant was sworn out for Davis' arrest and placed in the hands of Constable Ramsey, but the assailant had eluded the officer up to last night and no arrest had been made.

LATER: Since writing the above, Davis was arrested by Constable Ramsey and was released on bond.

PLANNED AN ESCAPE.

Three Prisoners En Route to The Penitentiary Endeavor to Rid Themselves of Their Guard.

C. D. Stout, deputy sheriff of Jasper county, passed through Sedalia yesterday afternoon on his way from Jefferson City to Joplin. Stout had gone down to the state capital Friday night, having in charge three prisoners for the penitentiary—Sam Graves, alias "Boxcar" Sam, burglary and larceny, 2 years; Arthur Aines, same, 4 years; Thomas Hardman, same, 4 years.

Graves, who was the "old timer" of the trio, had formed a plan to escape when the train reached Sedalia. According to the agreement he was to remove the handcuffs and all three pounce upon the guard and escape. A few moments before the train pulled into the depot, Stout observed Graves violently, pulling at his bracelet and casting quick glances around the car. Upon investigation the deputy relieved the prisoner of a short strip of tin about an inch and a half long and an eighth wide. With this article he endeavored to throw the spring lock, thus removing the handcuff. When detected in his scheme he remarked: "Caught again!" He was safely landed at the penitentiary, where he can try his hand-out ricket for two years.

FOUR YEARS AFTERWARDS.

Thomas Gilkins, Alias George Reed, Re-Arrested at the Penitentiary Doors For Breaking Jail at Hannibal, Missouri.

Deputy Sheriff J. K. Dowling, of Hannibal, Marion county, arrived from Jefferson City yesterday afternoon at 3:30. Mr. Dowling had in charge Thomas Gilkins, alias George Reed, an ex-convict, whom he arrested yesterday at the penitentiary doors, for breaking jail at Hannibal. Four years ago Gilkins was confined in the Marion county jail, charged with grand larceny, and awaiting the action of the grand jury.

One night while the sheriff was attending to his usual duties, a door was left open leading out of the jail. Several of the prisoners, Gilkins being one of them, took advantage of the situation and made a break for liberty. They succeeded in escaping, but two of them were afterwards captured. Gilkins, however, was not heard of until he was sent up from Jackson county for a like offense.

Yesterday ended his term in the penitentiary, and he again walked forth a free man until Deputy Dowling re-arrested him as above stated. The officer left yesterday evening with his prisoner for Hannibal.

As announced, a silk parasol and a gold watch chain were given to the best lady and gentleman waltzer. The judges, Tony Leese, E. A. Fuhrman and F. W. Weiss, awarded the parasol and chain to Miss Mary Shea and J. J. Knoupp, respectively.

The Sedalia boys were royally treated not only by the base ball team, but by the citizens and ladies of that city, many of them receiving floral tributes.

On their way to the police station they were met by Eakels, Constable Ramsey and Chief DeLong who had paid a similar visit to the joint run by Bill Tutt and John Dedman, on West Main street. After depositing the spoils at the station the officers proceeded to the dive on North Lamine Street, run by Clem Jones, where they made another raid.

About twenty-seven in all were arrested, all giving bond in the sum of $100, excepting five, who remained in the holdover. They will appear before Judge Rauck Monday morning.

DEATH OF "HARRISON."

A Namesake of the Republican Nominee for President, Meets With a Wanton and Tragic Death in Sedalia.

Frank DeJarnette is wearing a heavy band of crepe on his hat to-day.

He had two pet crows, one of which he named "Cleveland," and the other "Harrison."

These pets were given to parading about the saloon premises every day, and were also in the habit of making excursions over to the Union depot, a block away.

These sable-suited birds had become great favorites with those who knew them and were allowed the right of way wherever they went.

Unluckily, early yesterday morning "Harrison" was strolling along the depot platform, when he was met by a well-dressed but cruel man, who, wantonly and maliciously, struck him a fatal blow with a goldheaded umbrella. The innocent crow keeled over, a corpse before quite a number of persons, who witnessed the wanton deed.

The news of the calamity was not long in reaching Mr. DeJarnette, and when he was informed that his pet had flapped his feathers for the last time, anger and grief filled his bosom. He hurried to the depot and had Officer Murphy place the stranger under arrest and lock him up.

Shortly afterward, the slayer affected a compromise and was released by paying the owner $5 damages. This was merely nominal, as Mr. DeJarnette would not have taken $50 for the bird.

"Harrison" was buried yesterday, while "Cleveland"—his sable "suit" of mourning already prepared for an emergency of this sad character—is left alone to grieve over his dead mate.

The beautiful badges for the birds, which the owner was about to place around their necks, are now mournful relics of man's inhumanity to an humble and innocent namesake of the occupant of the White House.

RAILROADS.

A Part of the Missouri Pacific Formerly Turned Over to Gould.

Kansas City Mo., June 17.—At a meeting of the officers of the company held in Kansas City, Kan., this morning, the Kansas City Wyandotte and Northwestern road was formerly over to the Gould interest. It was the result of Mr. Gould's recent purchases of stock. The Gould interest was represented by B. P. Waggener of Atchison and, Geo. C. Smith of St. Louis, Assistant General Manager of the Missouri Pacific. The old officers and Board of Directors resigned, and the following gentlemen were elected to fill their places: President George C. Smith, Secretary and Treasurer, W. P. Waggener vice president. David Martin, Directors—Geo. C. Smith, David Martin, W. P. Waggener, E. G. Merriam, J. W. Orr, David Kelso, C. M. Rothburn, J. W. Waggener, George J. Gould, Elijah Robinson, A. H. Calef and Guy Phillips. The following board was selected for the Lawrence, Emporia and Southwestern Railway, which is identical in point of fact with the Wyandotte: B. P. Waggener, George C. Smith, David Kelso and A. H. Calef. The organization of the road is now fairly in Mr. Gould's hands, but the line will continue in Receiver Erb's possession until the court orders a sale, and no date for that event has yet been fixed. When it comes to a sale, however, there is no doubt as to who the purchaser will be. Mr. Gould is the largest bondholder and can, of course, better afford to purchase it than anyone else. As soon as the road passes into the hands of the Gould interest the officers selected to-day will assume charge. This means that the road is to be operated as a part of the Missouri Pacific system. The line will be one of the best feeders the Missouri Pacific has.

BACK FROM WEST POINT.

Lieut. John H. Parker, who was appointed to the military academy at West Point by Hon. John T. Heard, four years ago, from Green Ridge, Pettis county, passed through Sedalia yesterday, on his return home. Lieutenant Parker was graduated a few days ago, standing 49 in a class of 60. He has a furlough until September, when he will join the regiment—not yet known what one—to which he will be assigned. Lieutenant Parker is a tall, handsome, soldierly looking young man and Pettis county will probably have reason to be proud of his future career. He expects to be sent to some post in Montana.

THROWN FROM A WAGON.

A painful accident occurred Friday afternoon a few miles east of Nevada, by which two ladies, Miss Pierce and Mrs. Davis, received painful injuries.

Mr. Pierce, accompanied by the ladies mentioned, was in Nevada shopping, and started home. At or near Frank Cameron's farm the horses shied to the side of the road and the ladies were thrown violently to the ground. Mrs. Davis received injuries on her head, while Miss Pierce's collar bone was broken.

Dr. Stanhope was summoned and dressed the injuries received by the ladies.

It is learned this afternoon that Mrs. Davis' injuries are quite serious.

LOCAL LAWN TENNIS.

The Pastime Club of Sedalia—A Brilliant Tournament to be Held This Summer—Some Crack Players.

Lawn tennis is a game which is fast taking a strong hold on the athletic world in this country. It is a game which has had an existence of barely a dozen years, although possessing many of the features of the ancient English game of tennis, which Shakespeare speaks of in many of his plays. One charm of the game is the fact that it is free from the taint of professionalism and is strictly an amateur sport, which accounts for its spread throughout all the English speaking nations of the world. It is a true fact that the pastime possesses a rather aristocratic tone from the fact that it requires quite an outlay of money to prepare and keep in order the grounds, as well as to provide the necessary apparatus of the game. These facts have resulted to some extent in making lawn tennis a society game. Indeed, such might possibly be expected, as in the middle ages tennis was the recreation of the kings and nobles of England and France. The game is now subject to the control of a national organization, composed of various clubs throughout the country.

The Pastime Tennis club, of this city, is a member of this organization. While the game can be played by ladies, they can only play a ladies' game. It requires no muscle to become an expert, but the greatest agility and endurance are necessary. Its demands on the staying powers of one are greater than are required for the game of foot ball or base ball, while the scientific plays, curves and drives that may be made, make it comparable to the game of billiards.

The game may be witnessed by an outsider at the courts of the Pastime club near Grand avenue and Fifth street, by a request or authority of any member of the club.

Among the leading gentlemen players of the city are: Mr. Thomas J. Sturges, Rev. Alexander Allen, Chas. Emmert, Wm. B. Mackey, Merritt Yeater, Rev. J. R. Stevenson, Chas. A. Richardson, Lee Montgomery and Sam and Mint Johns. The lady players who have attained special skill are: Misses Jessie Smith, Stella Yeater, Mamie Mackey and Mabel Richardson.

There are quite a number of other devotees to the game in the city, some of whom doubtless would be entitled to go in the list of first-class players, besides those mentioned.

The Pastime club proposes to hold, during the summer, the first of a series of annual tournaments to determine who is the respective champion gentleman and lady player of the city. The occasion will not only be quite a society event, but will be a great treat to such lovers of athletics as may be invited to be present as guests and spectators.

A POOR WRETCH.

John Johnson was brought in from the Indian Territory yesterday morning by his brother-in-law, A. J. Bowlin, of Miller county, Mo., who was taking him to the insane asylum at Fulton. Johnson had already been confined there three months, besides having been an inmate of the Texas insane asylum three years. He is thirty-eight years old and has a wife and two children. Strange and horrible to relate, his insanity was caused by a nameless habit practiced since his marriage. He is one of the most forlorn, miserable, shameful looking wretches the reporter's eye ever rested on.

WILL BEGIN PRACTICE.

Dr. Sidney A. Conkwright, who graduated in April last at the Jefferson Medical college of Philadelphia, yesterday filed his certificate with Circuit Clerk Mitchum, and will commence the practice of his profession in this city.
